

G D Goenka World School, Sohna, collaborates with Scottish school

G D Goenka World School, Sohna, in partnership with the Oban High School, Scotland, undertook various projects, including literacy and wildlife conservation. School principal Neeta Bali and dean of libraries Madhu Bhargava visited the Scottish school recently to strengthen their collaboration in areas of best teaching practices and projects related to business studies and English. The partnership is an effort to nurture global citizens with an international outlook.
